

Although we have a hard address, we are on the road about 10 months a year and depend on XM radio. We find this service to be absolutely necessary for our life stile. XM provides us current information and I urge you to help them continue there operation.

Vic